

Save the world!

- I have just received word that the world is in dire danger. As Queen of the Universe, I will choose ONE superhero to be given the honor of defending the world against this impending danger and save humankind as we know it. Using ethos, logos, and pathos, you must convince me, Queen of the Universe, that your superhero deserves the honor to save the world.
 - Be creative. Surprise me (in a good way).
 - Use all three appeals—ethos, pathos, logos
 - Choose a method to present (advertisement, PowerPoint, skit, etc. —be creative!!!!)
 - Make sure you articulate how you used ethos, pathos, and logos.
 - This is an argument – you are making the claim that your superhero should be chosen. Think of all the elements of argument we have learned.
 - We will present Monday! And I will choose. It is a competition!
